

Crowleys DFK acquires Waterford practice

Dublin 30 November 2009 – Crowleys DFK is delighted to announce the acquisition of the Waterford-based accountancy practice, Michael Walsh & Co.

Located in the heart of the Waterford business community, Michael Walsh & Co has delivered audit, accountancy and tax services to individuals, companies and the local business community for over 10 years. The firm is especially strong in the Tourism & Hospitality industry and has particular expertise in providing management reporting and advisory services, including providing monthly reports on business performance and benchmarking.

Michael Walsh & Co. and Crowleys DFK share a commitment to delivering a professional, prompt and value-added service.

Commenting on these developments, Managing Partner James O'Connor said, "This acquisition allows us to branch into new markets and develop new specialisms within the firm. We are particularly excited by the quality of specialist advisory services being provided by the staff. With established offices in Dublin, Cork and Waterford our clients now have greater access to broader expertise in an ever-changing environment.
