Crowleys DFK makes key promotion

Dublin 5 August 2009 – Crowleys DFK has strengthened its Advisory team with the recent promotion of Vincent Teo to Director.

Managing Partner, James O'Connor, commented 'Vincent has been a key part in the growth of our expanding practice and we are delighted to promote him to this important position'.

Vincent is an experienced chartered accountant who joined Crowleys DFK in 2002. Working with both public and private sector clients, Vincent is particularly experienced in providing practical advice on business matters, corporate governance, financial reporting and management information systems.

Vincent aims to offer clients practical workable solutions through technical expertise and a hand-on approach.

James concluded 'Vincent's promotion expands our outstanding team, and reflects the firm's commitment to delivering the highest quality services to our clients.'
