

Credit Unions

We have been servicing the Credit Union sector for over 20 years. Specialising in audit, internal audit, corporate governance, risk management consultancy and financial management, our dedicated credit union team have developed an in-depth knowledge and understanding of the Credit Union sector.

We know your business

We act for a significant number of credit unions in Ireland.

Our credit union team is intimately familiar with the legislative requirements and the issues facing credit unions in the new regulatory environment.

With a deep understanding of the Credit Union and Co-operation with Overseas Regulators Act 2012, we have proven experience assisting credit unions in coping with the obligations arising from the new Act. This includes assisting in the implementation of action plans; managing stakeholders' expectations and developing and maintaining governance frameworks and control processes optimised for risk mitigation and cost efficiency.

Over the years we have written numerous articles in respect to the changes in the credit union sector. Our articles can be viewed on our website www.crowleysdfk.ie.

We have also given several presentations to Credit Unions on the new Credit Union Act, internal audit, governance and risk management.

Our distinctive approach

At Crowleys DFK, we see the whole picture. We do not apply the same methodology to every assignment.

All phases of our work involve discussions with key staff; documentation and testing of systems and procedures;

We arrange our on-site visits to cause the least possible disruption to the day-to-day activities of the credit union. We plan our work to ensure that relevant management and staff is available when required.

On conclusion of our onsite-site work we deliver to and meet with the credit union manager to agree the draft and final reports.

We have a proven track record of delivery within tight timeframes and ensure that deadlines given to us by our clients are met.

We believe our knowledge of the credit union sector provides us with the added advantage of ensuring the delivery of a bespoke quality service.
